Up to 60 migrants feared drowned

Sunday, 21 December, 2003, 13:16 GMT

Dozens of illegal migrants are feared dead after their boat sank off south-west Turkey, says Anatolia news agency.

A search for survivors began when an Iraqi passenger was rescued. Turkish efforts have drawn a blank, but a Greek operation is also said to be under way.

Up to 60 people from Iraq, Jordan and Afghanistan were thought to be on the boat when it left Marmaris in Turkey heading for the Greek island of Rhodes.
