

The 2014 European election: an overview

As 28 countries go to the polls in May, HOPE not hate looks at the far right and right wing populist groups who hope to make an impact.

SWEDEN

Party: Sweden Democrats
 Current MEPs: 0
 Vote in 2009 elections: 3.3%
 Current support*: 9.5%

FINLAND

Party: Finns Party
 Current MEPs: 1
 Vote in 2009 elections: 9.8%
 Current support*: 16%

DENMARK

Party: Danish People's Party
 Current MEPs: 1
 Vote in 2009 elections: 15.3%
 Current support*: 17.4%

LITHUANIA

Party: Lithuanian National Union
 Current MEPs: None
 Vote in 2009 elections: Did not stand
 Current support*: Below 1%

LATVIA

Party: National Alliance
 Current MEPs: 1
 Vote in 2009 elections: DNS
 Current support*: 7%

POLAND

Party: National Movement
 Current MEPs: None
 Vote in 2009 elections: Did not stand
 Current support*: 1.5%

SLOVAKIA

Party: Slovak National Party
 Current MEPs: 1
 Vote in 2009 elections: 5.3%
 Current support*: 5.3%

CZECH REPUBLIC

Party: Usvit (The Dawn)
 Current MEPs: None
 Vote in 2009 elections: Did not stand
 Current support*: 6%

HUNGARY

Party: Jobbik
 Current MEPs: 3
 Vote in 2009 elections: 14.8%
 Current support*: 14%

ROMANIA

Party: Greater Romania Party
 Current MEPs: 2
 Vote in 2009 elections: 8.7%
 Current support*: 3%

ITALY

Party: Lega Nord
 Current MEPs: 7
 Vote in 2009 elections: 10.2%
 Current support*: 3.4-5.2%

BULGARIA

Party: ATAKA
 Current MEPs: 2
 Vote in 2009 elections: 12%
 Current support*: 2.5%

GREECE

Party: Golden Dawn/National Dawn
 Current MEPs: 0
 Vote in 2009 elections: 0.5%
 Current support*: 9.6%

CYPRUS

Party: European Party (EVROKO)/
 National Popular Front (ELAM)
 Current MEPs: None
 Vote in 2009 elections: Did not stand
 Current support*: Both below 1%

